

WINSLOW HOMER STUDIO

Winslow Homer Road, Prout's Neck, Scarborough

From 1884 until his death in 1910, Winslow Homer used this converted carriage house on his brother's property at Prout's Neck as a studio. One of America's best-known and best-loved artists, Homer once stated that he worked "in utter independence of schools and masters." He is known for his Civil War scenes, landscapes, genre paintings, and particularly for his powerful paintings of the sea.
